

Croughton Wine Appreciation Group
“Upmarket whites and bargain reds from South Africa”

TASTING NOTES

425. Laborie, Blanc de Blancs, Chardonnay, Western Cape, 2010. 12%

The Laborie Blanc de Blancs is produced from Chardonnay grapes and has creamy biscuit, citrus and melon aromas with a soft rounded mouth-feel and delicate mousse.

General comments:	Actual price £15.95
Colour:	Nose:
Taste:	Score: 3.62 /5 (5 is highest) Guess price: £

426. Kleine Zatte, Chenin Blanc, Stellenbosch, 2015. 13.5%

Aromas of ripe pineapple and guava jump out of the glass. This is followed by a rich and ripe palate, beautifully balanced by lemon-lime freshness on the back palate.

General comments:	Actual price £10.75
Colour:	Nose:
Taste:	Score: 3.38 /5 (5 is highest) Guess price: £

427. Cape Peninsula, Sauvignon Blanc, Cape Peninsula, 2016. 13.5%

A bright lemon mouth- watering dry white with seductive tropical and elderflower aromas, fresh grapefruit and lime flavours and a refreshing steely finish.

General comments:	Actual price £10.00
Colour:	Nose:
Taste:	Score: 2.76 /5 (5 is highest) Guess price: £

428. D’Morgenzon, Chardonnay, Stellenbosch, 2013.14%

DMZ Chardonnay offers alluring citrus and tropical fruit aromas segue into a lush, concentrated palate. Ripe flavours of peach, pineapple and citrus are tinged with delicate hints of vanilla, butterscotch, caramel and toast, all backed by bright acidity and a beautiful minerally edge.

General comments:	Actual price £11.19
Colour:	Nose:
Taste:	Score: 2.85 /5 (5 is highest) Guess price: £

433. Nederburg, Noble Late Harvest, Western Cape, 2011. 12%

Intense aromas of dried fruits and honey. Lavish but elegant palate with vibrant acidity.

General comments:	Actual price £9.99
Colour:	Nose:
Taste:	Score: 3.71 /5 (5 is highest) Guess price: £

White wines total cost? £ _____

429. Waitrose, Merlot, W.O.Olifants River, 2016. 14%

A ripe, smooth, supple red wine with vibrant flavours of damsons and plums. Good with barbecued red meats and rich pasta dishes.

General comments:	Actual price £ 5.99
Colour:	Nose:
Taste:	Score: 2.33/5 (5 is highest) Guess price: £

430. Douglas Green, Cabernet Sauvignon, Western Cape, 2016. 14%

Douglas Green takes all the time necessary for the riveting dark berry fruit depth of our Cabernet Sauvignon to perfectly intertwine with etchings of savoury spice from oak maturation in our cellar. If you love reds with focussed fruit depth and astute body, you will relish the smooth intensity of this wine for fireside sipping or at the dinner table with your favourite steak, roast or stew.

General comments:	Actual price £7.49
Colour:	Nose:
Taste:	Score: 2.95/5 (5 is highest) Guess price: £

431. ASDA Extra Special Selection, Shiraz, Western Cape, 2016. 14%

Full of juicy, blackberry and spicy flavours, this tasty South African Shiraz from an award winning Fairtrade producer would be a great match to barbecued meats, roast beef or curries.

General comments:	Actual price £4.00
Colour:	Nose:
Taste:	Score: 3.24/5 (5 is highest) Guess price: £

432. ASDA Yellowwood Mountain Reserve, Pinotage, Western Cape, 2015. 14%

This deep red velvety Pinotage is overflowing with vibrant ripe red berry, raspberry and plum with undertones of vanilla. A classic with BBQs, steaks and cheese.

General comments:	Actual price £4.00
Colour:	Nose:
	Score: 2.67 /5 (5 is highest) Guess price: £

Red wines total cost? _____